Dear Scott Saywell,
Mark Walsh,
Shawn Johnston,
Charlene McKay,
Greg Keller,
Jessica Stanley,
Chantel O'Neill,
Elaine Wilkinson,
Tasha Brzovic,
Stephanie Higginson,
Bill Robinson

I am writing to you as a parent and concerned citizen regarding the vaccine status collection of your employees. This is an overreach and sets a precedent for future overreach. There is no instance where people must share their personal private medical history and it is disappointing that elected trustees are supporting this. At this point there has been much time and money wasted. On data collection and it really is pointless.

- 1) everyone will get Omicron - what is the end goal here?
- 2) what happened to natural immunity? Many folks have had COVID and recovered.
- 3) why would only this unvaccinated be tested? Everyone can spread the virus. There is no logic here.

This has been some of the most difficult years for many families. People deserve to work, children deserve their teachers. It is time to move forward.
