

GUIDING WISDOM

The graphic above demonstrates the interconnectedness of the Guiding Wisdom. The circle embraces all, illustrating inclusion and a holistic worldview. The three colours represent Syeyutsus, JEDI, and Environmental Stewardship. The colours blend to convey their interconnectedness. The black lines represent the Salish Eye, as our school district sits within Coash Salish territories. The Salish Eye is watchful of past and future generations.

SYEYUTSUS RECONCILIATION FRAMEWORK

Through the Syeyutsus Framework, themes, values and teachings of Indigenous Peoples include:

- The underpinnings of knowledge are the land, language and culture.
- The land is our teacher.
- We are all one family.
- It is important to live with balance, honour, respect, courage and vulnerability.
- It is vital that we establish a sense of belonging and connectedness to each other and the environment.
- We are all connected.
- We use holistic approaches that include mental, physical, emotional and spiritual lenses.

JEDI STANCE

JUSTICE the right to be treated and the responsibility to treat others with fairness and a fair process that meaningfully addresses barriers.

EQUITY to identify, remove and prevent systemic barriers and discriminatory practices.

DIVERSITY a representation of people's identities and experiences, collectively and as individuals.

INCLUSION feeling welcomed, valued, safe and a sense of belonging to participate freely with respect, dignity and freedom from discrimination.

ENVIRONMENTAL STEWARDSHIP

The goals of this Strategic Plan reflect our commitment to engaging in environmentally sustainable practices within our schools and classrooms, as well as across the broader system. We are committed to responding to the climate crisis with actions informed by Indigenous knowledge and western science. This will maximize positive outcomes over generations, integrating our Environmental Stewardship Action Plan (ESAP) to ensure every aspect of our operations contributes to a greener and more sustainable future.
